Paltrinieri 2016 Radice (Lambrusco di Sorbara)

This vibrant, slightly sparkling wine is one of the best Lambrucos out there.

Made entirely from the Sorbara variety, it opens with enticing citrus, woodland berry and wildflower scents. Its crisp, delicious palate doles out strawberry and pink grapefruit notes alongside baking spice accents and racy acidity. The lees that have settled at the bottom of the bottle gives the last glass even more flavor.

Paltrinieri 2014 Grosso Metodo Classico (Lambrusco di Modena)

Inviting red berry, pastry dough and cake spice aromas lead the nose of this wine. On the vibrant palate, white pepper, crystallized ginger and candied nectarine zest hints back up white cherry and juicy red currant fruit. It has a refined perlage and bright acidity that gives it a crisp, clean finish.
