Castello di Bossi 2013 Girolamo

Castelnuovo Berardenga (Chianti Classico, Siena), Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window:

A wine of distinction and personality, the 2013 Girolamo (Merlot) is also the most impressive wine in this range. A rush of black cherry, lavender, tobacco, licorice and savory herbs fills out the wine's huge, structured frame. There is quite a bit of creaminess and textural depth, but a few more years in bottle will only help, as the tannins are quite forbidding at this stage.

Castello di Bossi 2013 Corbaia

Castelnuovo Berardenga (Chianti Classico, Siena), Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2020 - 2033

The 2013 Corbaia, Castello di Bossi's Sangiovese/Cabernet Sauvignon blend, is terrific. Dark cherry, kirsch, leather, smoke and tobacco flesh out in this pliant, beautifully textured wine. A host of Cabernet-infused savory top notes continue to develop in the glass. The Corbaia is relatively open for the vintage. Even so, I would give the 2013 a few years in bottle to soften further.

Castello di Bossi 2013 Chianti Classico
Riserva Berardo

Castelnuovo Berardenga (Chianti Classico, Siena), Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window:

The 2013 Chianti Classico Riserva Berardo is loaded with character. Sweet red cherry, game, tobacco, licorice, herbs and game lend aromatic intrigue and tons of nuance. Overall, this is a fairly understated vintage for the Riserva, but all the elements come together nicely. The 2013 will drink well for another decade-plus.
