Giacomo Mori 2010 Vinsanto del Chianti

Palazzone, San Casciano Dei Bagni (Chianti, Siena), Tuscany

Sweet White wine from Italy

Drinking window:

Mori's 2010 Vinsanto del Chianti presents a super-classic, slightly oxidative profile typical of Vin Santos made from white grapes. Dried flowers, caramel, orange peel and figs are all brightened up by the wine's present acidity. Like all of these wines, the Vinsanto is rustic, but pleasantly so.

Giacomo Mori 2014 Chianti Riserva
Castelrotto

Palazzone, San Casciano Dei Bagni (Chianti, Siena), Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window:

Hints of tobacco, game, leather, licorice and smoke emerge from Mori's 2014 Chianti Riserva Castelrotto. The first signs of aromatic development suggest that the 2014 may not be an especially long-lived wine. Even so, it will deliver considerable drinking pleasure for at least the next few years. The 2014 Castelrotto is a very pretty and complete wine from Mori.
